

Foster City Parks and Recreation Presents:

Camp Outback

Entering K-2nd grade

June 20-August 12, 2011

Camp Outback is a camp where your child will experience the summer of a lifetime through discovery, exploration, and new friendships. All activities from daily arts and crafts projects, games, songs, and field trips are designed to keep your child safe and happy all day long. Each week camp staff will have camp activity calendars to keep families and their campers updated on the week's theme and daily activities. Give your child the experience of a lifetime!

Camp Outback is a full day program with at least one field trip per week on Wednesdays unless otherwise noted. Parents: Some field trips include water/swimming elements. Please notify a staff person if your child is a non-swimmer or has limited skills. *Field trips are subject to change without notice.
