SHAMROCK HUNT CLUES

1. This park is named for an Admiral in the Navy, originally from Tennessee.
2. After the bell rings, the "Eagles" run here to play and swing.
3. When the sun starts to fall, it's still the spot to play some ball.
4. This spot is the start and finish line of the annual Community Bike Ride.
5. At the park with the heart, find your shamrock in a garden of rocks.
6. This park is named for a red giant star that looks orange from afar.
7. Get ready for battle - this sport requires a ball and a paddle.
8. Here you'll find the clue between the Main and Stay sails.
9. When you're walking on the boardwalk, you can stop here to grab some shade.
10. A park on the Lagoon named for a clever bird we've all seen...and heard!
11. Home of the "worms". Spend enough time here and you'll learn a lot of terms.
12. It's the place to get some treats after playing a game in your cleats.
13. Walking on the levee? Why not get a workout in as you pass this place.
14. Roll on over to the home where all eyes are on "jack".
15. The park with the best view of Highway 92.

PLEASE NOTE:
